

What good am I?

I'm important to God.

Sean knows many things about his sisters Vicki and Kaylee. He knows almost as much about Tristan and Becky. They have been friends all his life. He doesn't know very much about Deng and Alove. They are new to Bible club. He knows that they all have different personalities, looks and abilities. Lucy often tells the children that they are all important to God no matter what they are like, and God can use them.

Listen to God! Mark 3:13-19

Delbert our dictionary says

Disciple: follower of a person or set of beliefs, followers of Jesus, especially the first twelve.

Apostle: one chosen and sent as a special representative or messenger.

Jesus chose 12 of his disciples (after praying all night) to be apostles, his special helpers. These men were all different – some were impulsive, courageous, ambitious, some doubting, fearful, one even greedy. Some we know nothing about. But Jesus chose to use them. No matter what we are like, or how well people know us, Jesus can use us too.

Unscramble the disciples names. Which ones do you know something about? Tick their names.

etPre _____ plihPi _____ masJe _____ dwreAn _____

adJus _____ theoBralwom _____

nmoSi _____ smJea _____

hnoJ _____ ttwMaeh _____

deadushaT _____ msahTo _____

Talk to God!

Thank you Heavenly Father that everyone is important to you. Thank you that as we trust and follow you, you will use us to share your love.